20 Case No. C05-5124

21 ORDER ON MOTION FOR
22 ADDITIONAL DEPOSITION TIME RE
23 DEBBIE ESTRADA

24 THIS MATTER comes on before the above-entitled Court upon Defendant Local 791's Motion for 25 Additional Deposition Time Re: Debbie Estrada [Dkt. #22].

26 Having considered the entirety of the records and file herein, the Court rules as follows:

27 Plaintiff's complaint contains causes of action against the defendants for gender discrimination, sexual
28 harassment, and retaliation under 42 U.S.C. § 2000e and RCW 49.60 et. seq., and a claim against defendant
Security Barricade, Inc. for unpaid wages. The defendant, Local 791, joined by defendants Security Barricade,
Inc. and Lakeside Industries seek to add additional time to the seven hours provided under Fed.R.Civ.P.
30(d)(2) for the deposition of plaintiff Debbie Estrada arguing that because there are four defendants, they all

1 will need more time than the rules allow to complete the examination. This case is in its infancy. Initial
2 disclosures under Fed.R.Civ.P. 26 were just recently due on June 10, 2005. No depositions have yet been
3 scheduled. Plaintiff's counsel represents to the Court that if the deposition of the plaintiff is proceeding
4 expeditiously and cannot be completed with the seven hours provided by the rule, that they will be amenable
5 to agreeing to extend the time for the deposition. Based upon this representation, it is hereby

6 ORDERED that Defendant Local 791's Motion for Additional Deposition Time Re: Debbie Extrada
7 [Dkt. #22] is DENIED without prejudice, to be renewed if the parties cannot agree to extend the time for the 8 deposition after the completion of seven hours.

9 The Clerk shall send uncertified copies of this order to all counsel of record, and to any party appearing 10 pro se.

11 Dated this 23rd day of June, 2005.
